1	none :)
2	Very nice teacher!
3	Professor Ortiz is an interesting and thoughtful professor who is truly passionate about the courses he teaches. He is very welcoming and allows students to express themselves through group activities and other class assignments. Overall, an amazing professor, and I would definitely take another class with him again if I could!
4	Professor Ortiz was a great professor I liked how he valued group discussion and did not get mad when class went off schedule he valued our learning over everything!
5	Professor Ortiz was the goat. I've had him for two semesters and he truly seems like he wants to teach and get to know his students. He could be a little more clear about his assignments in the syllabus but overall the goat.
6	Professor Ortiz is a great professor because of the guidance, support, and dedication he showed throughout this course. Ortiz's passion for the subject made a big difference in my learning experience compared to my other previous FSA classes.
7	In addition to Prof Ortiz's Gender, Race, and Class Issues in Ed class, his Urban Education class has been by far the most engaging class I have taken. Prof Ortiz makes me feel like I have a sense of belonging and valuable ideas. He allows space for autonomy and decision-making among the students and allows us to guide the lesson. His assignments outside of class are not demanding and they perfectly reflect the criteria we cover in class.
8	I really enjoyed this class. the content was very relevant and everything that he presented to the class was significant to every person sitting here. As future teachers we all gained knowledge by sitting in this class and everything was super organized and he made it very enjoyable to learn.
9	I really enjoyed Professor Ortiz's class because he structured the class in a digestible way. The way we went through the learning goals and the semester made so much sense. All the assignments had a reason to the course and expanded on my learning. He makes us really think about education as a whole and connects to real-world issues and us as both students and future educators. He makes the class exciting and fun by making it discussion based and interactive. I always look forward to a class with Professor Ortiz. He truly cares about each and every one of his students and their futures. It is evident throughout his teaching.
10	I feel as i learned something new everyday with Mr. Ortiz! he is so kind and understands college life as an student and not a professor. He advises us to do better!
