Dear Jose Ortiz:

Thank you for your application to the SUNY Diversity, Equity, Inclusion, and Social Justice (DEISJ) Fellows Program. Over the four fellows programs, we received more than 200 applications and, based upon multiple rounds of reviews, your application was unfortunately not selected for this cycle. Although we cannot provide feedback on individual applications, we can say that the pool was highly competitive; the reviewers spoke highly of the applicant pool and they were impressed with all the good work that is happening across the system.

We wish you the very best in your work. Information about the new cohorts of fellows will be posted on the webpages in the weeks to come. Thank you for your interest in the program and we invite you to stay connected to this work on the system level. We will be providing more information about a SUNY-wide General Education conference in the weeks to come as part of this work.
